

ANDERSON'S The UNION PICTORIAL PRIMER

"TALL OAKS FROM LITTLE ACORNS GROW"

S A N D E R S '
UNION
Pictorial Primer.

INTRODUCTORY TO THE UNION READERS.

BY

CHARLES W. SANDERS, A. M.

IVISON, BLAKEMAN, TAYLOR, AND COMPANY,
NEW YORK AND CHICAGO.

1876.

Entered according to Act of Congress, in the year 1866, by CHARLES W. SANDERS,
In the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the United States for the Southern District of New York

PREFACE.

THE UNION PICTORIAL PRIMER is designed as an introduction to SANDERS' UNION SERIES OF READERS AND SPELLER. The plan of the book is similar to that of Sanders' Pictorial Primer, — a work which has been more extensively used in the schools of this country than any other of the kind ever published.

This unparalleled success, doubtless, lies in the peculiar fitness of that work for the juvenile mind.

The book is so arranged as to be adapted to the word method, the phonetic method, or to the ordinary method, — that of teaching the names of the letters first, — just as the teacher may prefer.

The engravings have been designed and executed by the most skillful artists expressly for this book. They will aid the learner in understanding the lessons which they illustrate, and, at the same time, afford numerous subjects for OBJECT-TEACHING.

NEW YORK, 1866.

The bed is for Ann and me.

Lesson XIX.

Tip, get up!
Can you say A?
No, no; you can not do it.

But you can get a big rat.
You can run and say, "Bow!"
And you can hop on my lap.
Now you may lie on the mat.

Lesson XX.

Can you get me the pen?
 It is in my new tin box.
 You may get the ink too:
 Now you may sit by me.

Lesson XXI.

Now we can get in the car.
 Can I get in the car too?
 Oh, yes! we can all get in.
 It is fun to go in the car.

Lesson XXII.

Oh, see the dog and the fox!
 Can the dog get the fox?
 No; the fox can run in his den.
 Run, dog, run! you may get him.

Lesson XXV.

See the boy on his gay nag!
Let me see how he can go.

Sit up! Do not let him run.
How far did you go? Not far.
You may get off. Let me try him.
Now you may let him be fed.

Lesson XXVI.

Nep, do you see the pig?
He has got out of the pen.
You may run at him; but do not nip his leg or ear.

Lesson XXVII.

Now, old Nep, you are in a bad fix. If you do not go off, Tab will fly at you.
See, she has put up her paw.

Lesson XXVIII.

 set man
 God foe

Now let us sit on the log.
 We can all see the sun set.
 Oh, how red it is!
 I saw the sun as I got up.
 Now we can not see it at all.

Lesson XXIX.

God can see all we do ;
 but we can not see him.

Let us not sin, or do a bad
 act. It is a sin to lie.
 No one can say he has no sin.

Lesson XXXII.

lad	sky	mow	air
day	dew	ill	hay

Get up, my lad. Do not lie in bed all day.

The sun is in the sky, the dew is off, and you can go out.

The man is in the lot, and you can see him mow.

If you are ill, you can lie in bed; but if not, you can get up, and go out in the air.

Lesson XXXIII.

sail	ride	leap	drum
ship	take	frog	beat

See the ship sail on the sea.
 Now the boy will take a ride.
 The frog will leap in the pond.
 The boy can beat his drum.

Lesson XXXIV.

this	that bear	hare

This is a bear. That is a hare.
 Can the bear get the hare?
 No; for the bear can not run as fast as the hare.

Lesson XXXV.

here

 bird

Here we see a duck and a mink.
 Will the mink eat that bird?
 Yes; and he will eat the duck too, if he can get her.

Lesson XXXVI.

nest look four must blue them

Oh, here is a bird's nest! See, it has four blue eggs in it!
 We may look at the eggs; but we must not take them off.
 None but bad boys will rob a bird of her eggs.

Lesson XXXVII.

fast	lost
read	legs like	been lame	shot

The boy and the dog run.

The boy can not run as fast as the dog, and the dog can not read like the boy.

Lesson XXXVIII.

This lame man has lost one of his legs. He has been to the war, and his leg was shot off.

We will help the poor lame man.

Lesson XXXIX.

play hold round home down fall town soon

Now let us play see saw.

You may get on that end, and I will get on this.

As I go up, you will go down.
Hold on fast or you will fall.

See saw, up and down,

We can look all round the town.

Now we must run home; for it will soon be dark.

Lesson XL.

help	whip
pick	rock
poor	trot

Do not cry. We will help you pick them all up.

Poor girl! she had a sad fall.
But we will aid her all we can.

Lesson XLI.

See the girl
on her nag.
How she makes him go!

He can rock; but can not trot.
When you wish to get off, you can make him stop.

What a nice ride you have had!

*SANDERS' UNION PRIM.Lesson XLII.

Run, boys, run! fun, boys, fun!
 Now for a good time at play.
 Toss up the ball, and I will hit it with the bat.

Now let me give it a toss, and you may try to hit it.

That was well done. Now it is his turn. We can all take a part in the play.

See that boy saw the wood.
He is a poor boy, and has to work hard. If he is a good boy, he may yet be a rich man.

Lesson XLIV.

Now, my pet,
can you say,
Poor Poll?

You can, if you try. That was well done.

Can you show the boys and girls how to make a bow?

Yes! They must nod the head.

Lesson XLV.

Here is a shop full of toys.
They are for good boys and girls.
Ames may have a bat and ball.
Jane must have a new doll.
Let me buy a new red top, and give it to that poor boy.
Can you name all the toys that you see in this shop?

Oh, the snow! the snow! Now for a ride. Get out the sled.
Come, Carl, let us see how well you can play your part.
Hop on, Kate. You may be the first to take a ride.
How do you like your ride?
Oh, I like it much! Now let me get on, and take a ride.

Lesson XLIX.

kind	dive
odd	deep
short	swim

What kind of bird is this? It is an auk. How odd it looks! It has short legs and wings. It can not fly; but it can dive deep, and swim fast.

Lesson L.

Here are three birds in a row. Can you tell what kind of birds they are? One is a lark. It can soar high in the air. Do you see its nest and eggs?

Lesson LI.

puss	back	hurt	yarn
fuss	Pont	hide	Frank

Puss, what a fuss you do make!
 Put down your back. Pont will not hurt you, nor your kits.
 See them run, and try to hide.
 One of the kits has got fast in the yarn, and can not get out.
 Frank, take the band off from Pont's eyes. The cats do not like the fun as well as you.

Lesson LII.

book	hand	next	tell
word	head	done	well

You have had a good time at play, and now you must read. Get the book. Look at this word.

Can you tell what it is?

Let me try. H a n d, — hand.

Now let May read the next word.

H e a d, — head. Well done!

Now you may put up your book.

Lesson LIII.

keeps cows says finds herd wants Rove drive

This man keeps a herd of cows.
When he wants them to come home, he says to his dog, “Come, Rove, it is time for you to go for the cows.”

Rove will go off, and not come back till he finds them all.
He can drive the cows home
as well as a boy or a man.

Lesson LIV.

grove sorts some race spend sport swing feast

What a gay time the boys and girls will now have!

In this grove they will spend the day, and have all' sorts of sport.

Some swing, one jumps the rope, some run a race, and some play round the flag.

By and by they will all sit down to a rich feast.

Lesson LV.

road shout flag join glee wave been place

Oh, what a load of boys and girls! They are in high glee.
Shout, boys, swing your caps,
and wave your flag in the air.
They have all been to the grove,
and have had a good time.
Hark! now they all join and sing, "Home, sweet home,"
"There's no place like home."

Lesson LVI.

deep	dash	large	flock
roar	shore	seem	gulls

Oh, the sea! the sea! Now we can look on the deep blue sea.

Oh, how the waves do roar,
And dash up to the shore!

I can see four large ships. How fast they sail on the sea!
There goes a flock of sea gulls.
What long wings they do have!

Lesson LVII.

These men have been to the war.
Some have guns, some have swords, and some have flags.
They have been gone four years,
and have had to fare hard.
The war is now past, and they will all go home.
How the men do shout and wave their hats as they pass by!

Lesson LVIII.

Can you write?

I can write some.

Go, get the pen.

Now get the ink.

Take the pen in your right hand.

I will show you how to hold it.

Do not write till you see the copy.

that line looks.*

Oh, you did not dot the i's, nor cross the t's!

Now let me see the next line.

That is well done.

Next time you may write four lines.
